

Photo: FAO/Matthias Mugisha

Putting Agenda 2030 into practice

- how the landscape perspective can contribute

Workshop program:

Register and read more at the event page here

- 9.30 Registration and coffee
- 10.00 Welcome and outline of the day
Louise Karlberg, SEI Stockholm Centre Director
Maria Ölund, Project Coordinator Focali and SIANI
- 10.15 Key notes: Sweden's implementation of Agenda 2030 – policy updates and reflections
Ingrid Petersson, Director General Formas and representative of the Swedish Agenda 2030 delegation
Mia Crawford, Deputy Director at Swedish Ministry for Enterprise and Innovation
Maria Berlekom, Lead Policy Specialist Environment and Climate Change, Sida (tbc)
- 11.00 How can a landscape perspective contribute – perspectives from the organizers
Anders Malmer, Professor and Director, SLU-Global
- 11.15 Case 1: Green water management in Africa – building resilience and ending hunger
Torgny Holmgren, Executive Director, SIWI
- 11.30 Panel discussion and open Q&A session with morning speakers
- 12:10 Lunch at SEI ( Register for the lunch at the event page )
- 13.10 Case 2: Stakeholder collaboration within a Swedish watershed landscape – Helge å
Jan Lannér, Coordinator – Helge å Baltic Landscape, The Swedish Forest Agency
- 13.25 Case 3: The landscape perspective with global connections – linking “local landscapes” and global consumption, Toby Gardner, Research Fellow SEI and Focali member
- 13.40 Panel discussion on lessons from case studies for integrated Agenda2030 implementation
- 14.00 Collaboration initiatives – presentations of forums for continued dialogue
SIWI and SIANI present and opens up the floor for other initiatives suggested by participants
- 14.20 Coffee and interactive mingle exercise - Participants' perspectives on Agenda 2030 implementation and discussion on presented collaboration initiatives
- 15.10 Reporting back from interactive exercise and summing up the day
- 15:30 End of workshop

